Transparency related to members’ financial, material, and vested interests is essential to ensuring public trust and building strong programs. Those seeking to serve on the Committee must disclose any actual, potential, or perceived conflicts of interest in their applications. Committee members must disclose such conflicts on an ongoing basis and failure to do so may result in dismissal from the Steering Committee.

“Interest” as used in this Conflict of Interest Disclosure Forum means a substantial financial, material, or vested interest in a business or organization that may be impacted by the work of this Committee. A person has a “vested interest” in a business or organization if they ~~or their family members stand to benefit personally from its success,~~ have a personal stake in that entity’s success. A financial, material, or vested interest is “substantial” if it is both greater than interests of the local general population and is large enough to actually impact that person’s wellbeing. These definitions recognize that most members of the community benefit in minor and indirect ways from the success of regulated businesses or operations. The intent of this Form is to focus on only those interests that stand out when compared to the average community member.

A conflict of interest occurs when an individual’s personal or professional interests and affiliations – family, friendships, financial, or social factors – could compromise his or her judgment, decisions, or actions as a member of the Steering Committee. Conflicts of interest can be differentiated between actual, potential, and perceived conflicts of interest. An actual conflict exists if an action taken by a member will result in a financial or personal gain or loss to the member or to the member’s relative or any business/organization in which they have a material interest. A potential conflict exists if an action taken by a member may result in a financial or personal gain or loss to the member or to the member’s Relative or any business/organization in which they have a material interest. A perceived conflict exists when the public or a third party could form the view that a member’s private or professional interests could improperly influence their decisions or actions, now or in the future.
