Air District to host Clean Air Talk series with Board Chair Hurt Public invited to share air quality questions, concerns

SAN FRANCISCO – Today, the Bay Area Air Quality Management District announced its Clean Air Talk series, featuring Air District Board Chair Davina Hurt, to be held in communities throughout the Bay Area.

The conversations will focus on community concerns and questions regarding air quality issues. The Air District welcomes all thoughts, questions and comments related to local air quality and climate change impacts. Public comments and concerns from each of the Clean Air Talk events will be shared with the Air District's 24-member Board of Directors at their monthly meetings.

"Much of the Air District's work is focused on air quality in the entire nine-county Bay Area," said Air District Board Chair Davina Hurt. "I want to hear from local communities about what their thoughts or concerns are on air quality in their neighborhoods and how that impacts them to help our Board make optimal decisions on good air quality programs."

Currently scheduled Clean Air Talk events include:

- San Carlos, August 10, 12 noon – 1 p.m. at the San Carlos Public Library, Community Room A and B, 610 Elm St, San Carlos, CA 94070
- San Jose, September 7, 12 noon – 1 p.m. at the Alum Rock Public Library, Alum Rock Community Room, 3090 Alum Rock Ave, San Jose, CA 95127
- Vallejo, October 5, 12 noon – 1 p.m. at Vallejo Public Library, 505 Santa Clara Street, Vallejo, CA 95590
- East Palo Alto, November 2, 12 noon – 1 p.m. at East Palo Alto Community Room, 2415 University Avenue, East Palo Alto, CA 94303
- San Lorenzo, December 7, 12 noon – 1 p.m. at San Lorenzo Library, Greenhouse Community Room, 395 Paseo Grande, San Lorenzo, CA 94580

In addition to serving as Air District Board Chair, Hurt is also a Board member of the California Air Resources Board, Vice Chair of the Silicon Valley Clean Water Commission, and councilmember and former mayor of the City of Belmont.
