IV. SECTION IV

DEVIATIONS FROM MACT REQUIREMENTS

No deviations from the emissions limitations, specified under the MACT guidelines occurred during this period. There were no instances during this reporting period where any required abatement control device was not operating when any coating operation was taking place.

[\$63.3110(c)(6)]

DEVIATIONS FROM TITLE V REQUIREMENTS

S-3716, Powertrain Motor Line Coating and Assembly Operations, was not in compliance with applicable Permit Condition (PC) 25573 Part 4. PC 25573 Part 4 requires POC emissions from S-3716 to be abated using a Carbon Adsorption Unit (CAU) with a minimal 90% removal efficiency. The CAU cannot achieve that level of efficiency and it has been determined that CAU is not the proper abatement technology for this source. This also led to non-compliance with PC 25573 Part 5, annual source testing requirement, because sampling monitoring showed the unit would not meet the required efficiency level.

The Bay Area Air Quality Management District has agreed to grant Tesla time to install a regenerative thermal oxidizer to abate emissions from S-3716. The abatement unit will be installed and operating by April 2017.
