

APPLY FOR A JAMES CARY SMITH COMMUNITY GRANT!

Up to $300,000 per organization over three years

Cycle 2 Applications accepted until January 7, 2025, at 5:00 p.m. Pacific Time

The Air District seeks to strengthen partnerships with community-based organizations so that more Bay Area advocates have the information and resources they need to fully engage in decisions that impact local air quality and community health.

A total of $1.5 million will be available for Cycle 2 of the James Cary Smith Community Grant Program. The maximum amount for an individual grant is $300,000 over three years, with a maximum of $100,000 per year. Grants must be used to design and implement strategies that foster authentic, empowered community participation in planning activities that improve a community's environmental health. The Air District specifically seeks to partner with community-based organizations in the Bay Area to uplift local efforts that improve air quality and public health. Community-based groups and local 501(c)(3) nonprofit organizations serving environmental justice communities within the Bay Area are encouraged to apply.
